Evergreen Events by Our Correspondent

Evergreen, March 11.- It has been raining since early morning, and the remnant of snow left on the ground by the past two days of sunshine, should soon disappear.

The average farmer seems to be well up with his farming operations and is ready to begin the annual spring planting, which began with the sowing of grass and clover seed and early garden vegetables.

The planting of potatoes will soon be in order; we are informed of one progressive farmer who planted last week. The recent snow and rain should prove beneficial to the grass previously sown.

We attended the obsequities of our friend, J. L. Clark, held at his home Sunday. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, there was a large attendance of friends and relatives. Mr. Clark was the senior deacon on the Evergreen Baptist church and had spent his entire life on the farm which he had successfully cultivated, until his retirment several years ago, because of ill health and the infirmaties of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Davis and son of Portsmouth, Va., spent last week in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wooldridge.

Rev T. E Goad, of Pleasant View and Mrs Goad were in attendance at the funeral of J. L. Clark.

Miss Rosa Mae Wooldridge and Mr. Davis, of Waynesboro were week-end guests of her parents, Mr and Mrs. E. E. Wooldridge.

Mrs. Herbert Deadmon has moved to Petersburg, where her husband has accepted a position.

Mrs. J. D. Jennings has returned from a recent visit to friends in Lynchburg.

Mrs. Tucker Clark has returned home with her small son from an extended stay in a Lynchburg hospital, where her baby received medical treatment. We are glad to report that the baby is much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Hebert Taylor, of Lewisburg, W. Va., were here last week end on account of the passing of her father, the late lamented J. L. Clark.

C. T. Evans is some better at his time.

John Farrar is out again after a spell of flu.

Mrs. Ada Farrar continues critically ill at her home here.

Mrs. Lily Moses, of Appomattox, Mrs. W. B. Thomas, Mrs. H D Baker and Mrs Tommy Jennings visited Mrs. Ada Farrar yesterday. Mrs. M. H. Marks and Mrs R A. Powell, of Lynchburg, sisters of Mrs Farrar, visited her last Thursday.

Mrs. Gilbert Dinkins and children of Appomattox, visited Mrs. J. R. Conner yesterday.

Mrs. Pearl Glenn is suffering from a slight indisposition.

Tipton Jennings is home again, after taking treatment in a Lynchburg hospital, much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Inge and children, of Roanoke were week-end visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Garrett.

Vegetable Laxative Has Important Points

Most people want a laxative to do three things: (1) act punctually, (2) act thoroughly, (3) act gently.

Here's one that usually fills all three requirements when the easy directions are followed. It's an all-vegetable product whose principal ingredient has medical recognition as an "intestinal tonic-laxative."

That's the ingredient which enables BLACK-DRAUGHT to help tone lazy bowel muscles. It is the main reason for the satisfying relief from constipation that generally follows next morning when BLACK-DRAUGHT is taken at bedtime. The millions of packages used are proof of its merit.

THE RECORD.... Facts That Concern You No. 24 of a Series

A few weeds grow in every garden

Among the thousands of decent law-abiding beer retail establishments in America there may be a few disreputable "joints."

While it is the brewers' responsibility to brew good beer and the retailers' responsibility to sell beer under wholesome conditions, nevertheless the brewing industry is concerned about these undesirable places and wants them cleaned up.

We want them cleaned up because they endanger your right to enjoy good beer . . . and our right to make it

We want them cleaned up because they endanger the 16,578 jobs and $14,106,965 payroll created by beer in Virginia since re-legalization. Beer contributed $1,792,945.12 last year in taxes in this state.

These benefits are worth preserving. You can help us, if you will, by (1) patronizing only the reputable, legal places that sell beer and by (2) reporting any law violations to the duly constituted law enforcement authorities.

Loss of Vital Organs

The amazing ability of the human body to accept the partial loss of vital organs was exemplified by Dr. Edward S. West of the University of Oregon Medical school who told of a 55-year-old man who was able to live normally after all but three feet of his small intestine had been removed in an operation. After the operation, the patient, Dr. West reported, was subject to convulsions. Observations disclosed that while the man had a huge appetite, and ate from 10 to 12 times as much every day as a workingman employed at hard labor, he could not absorb calcium. He was given large quantities of Vitamin D in cod-liver oil and this enabled him to recover completely. Dr. West was surprised to find that despite the operation the man could absorb carbohydrates and proteins almost as well as a normal person.

Child Needs Religious Training, Too, Says Writer

We have laid great stress on the physical care of children. We have set up centers for the education of mothers, organized extensive nursing services for mothers and children, trained specialists for their protection against disease.

But in our devotion to health and education we have overlooked the basic element in the matter. We have made scant provision for the education and development of his spirit. We have glorified his body and neglected his soul.

You cannot prepare for a successful happy life on this earth and leave out God and His works, ideals and laws. Yet that, for the most part, is what we have done in relation to the education of our children.

The clergyman is helpless unless the parents co-operate with him. It is idle to teach a child one idea for 15 minutes or half an hour a day when the remaining hours of the 24 deny the teaching. It is just as idle for the teacher to teach day after day the duty of man to his neighbor and to himself if the home denies the teaching. Church and school and home together must bring the full measure of their regard for the soul of the child upon his daily life so that righteous becomes his habit.

The above is by Angelo Patri of the Chicago Daily News.

"Build-Up" for Women Helps Avoid Distress

Do you suffer periodically from headaches, nervousness, irritability, cramp-like pain?

If so, here's good news! These may be symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition, often helped by CARDUI.

CARDUI usually increases appetite and the flow of gastric juice; so aids digestion and helps build up strength, energy, physical resistance. Result: for many it lessens periodic distress. Or you may find this also helps ease your periodic discomfort. Take CARDUI a few days before and during "the time." 50 years of use and popularity invite your confidence in CARDUI.

PLAY AT STONEWALL
